Farm and Stock News

M. B. Carson, of the West End, sold a nine-month-old Aberdeen Angus calf to Jeff Collingsworth, of Cadmus, last week for $125. This is about a record price for bull calves around here to date.

From a setting of 107 turkey eggs Mrs. Jesse Turney, of near Paris hatched out ninety-five live young turkeys, which are now thriving. The youngsters are of the White Holland variety. This average is considered a very remarkable one. It has been said by experts that the young is about the hardest proposition in the poultry line.

R. C. Nunnelle, of the Turnersville section, has just returned from a two weeks' visit to his son, Charley Nunnelle at Manhattan, Montana, in the famous Gallatin valley. Young Mr. Nunnelle is operating the large ranch of Jas. Gover, now of this county. It is located in a section where irrigation is necessary. Mr. Gover says that with the kind sort of irrigation, Mr. Nunnelle should make 100 bushels of oats and 60 bushels of wheat to the acre. Mr. Nunnelle brought back samples of the wheat grown there, which is of fine quality and always brings top price.

V. A. Lear and F. B. Marksbury, of Lancaster, represent a wool buying firm, and have already purchased 20,000 pounds or more, paying them an average price of 37 cents a pound.

J. B. Foster sold this week the farm of Mrs. Jesse Stagg, which is located down on the Hanging Fork to W. A. Brent. The farm is one of the best in that section, containing 125 acres and sold for eighty dollars an acre.

W. B. Burton, Lancaster's leading horse and mule dealer, was in Richmond on last Monday, county court day, buying a pair of 4-year-old hybrids at $275, and an aged mule, price not obtained. Center Bros., of Garrard, were also at the Richmond market Monday, purchasing a 4-year-old mule from Mr. DeJarnett for $120, and a 5-year-old hybrid for $135.

The biggest and best bunch of cattle that has been driven through the streets of Nicholasville in years was the one belonging to T. W. Duckworth, who brought them to town Friday and loaded them for Chicago, where he had sold them at a fancy price to a packer. Mr. Duckworth had had the beebes on slop for awhile. They averaged 1,030 pounds and were as uniform a lot as one could wish to see.—Nicholasville News.

Miss Eula Dale, in the Lucas country seems to know the art of raising chickens and of handling the incubator. In the early spring, or rather late winter, she took out of the incubator one hundred and eight chickens, and of these only ten died. A few days ago she sold sixty of these broilers for $29.35, which is almost 50 cents each. Since that first hatch she has taken off three separate hatches, there being one hundred in the first brood, one hundred and forty-three in the second and one hundred and fifty-nine in the third and over three hundred of these are now living. Next week the incubator will hatch again. Can you beat it?—Glasgow Times.

The feeding of milk to young chicks has a most favorable influence on the growth and on lessening the mortality. It tends to prevent mortality from all causes, and if fed soon enough and for a sufficiently long period greatly reduces the death rate caused by bacillary white diarrhea.

The Farmers Bank and Trust Co., is distributing to twelve boys of six magisterial districts in Scott county, twelve registered duroc gilts. At the end of the year the boys are to repay the bank for original gift from her increase. The object of the Scott bank is to encourage the raising of this breed of hogs by the coming farmers in Scott county. The boys are Allen Collins, George Covington, Joe Coyle, Raymond Franks, Alvin Hutchcraft, Oakley Lee Halton, Walker Michael, Elmo McKnight, Price Robinson, Joseph F. Stone, Estill G. Traylor, Revel Vance.

HAVE YOU WEAK LUNGS?

Do colds settle on your chest or in your bronchial tubes? Do coughs hang on, or are you subject to throat troubles? Such troubles should have immediate treatment with the strengthening powers of Scott's Emulsion to guard against consumption which so easily follows. Scott's Emulsion contains pure cod liver oil which peculiarly strengthens the respiratory tract and improves the quality of the blood; the glycerine in it soothes and heals the tender membranes of the throat. Scott's is prescribed by the best specialists. You can get it at any drug store. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Almost A Nervous Wreck Was Mr. Black of Richmond; He Now Has Perfect Health

"I can safely say that before taking Tanlac I was almost a nervous wreck," said Mr. John Blackburn, 165 Center street, Richmond, Ky.

"My nervousness was undoubtedly caused by stomach trouble. Since taking Tanlac I never felt better in my life."

Tanlac is a tonic which aids digestion, promotes healthy, refreshing sleep and strengthens the nerves. There is hardly a portion of the body that is not benefited by the helpful action of Tanlac, which begins its work by stimulating the digestive and assimilative organs, thereby enriching the blood and invigorating the whole system.

Next it enables a weak, worn out stomach to thoroughly digest its food, permitting the assimilation of the nourishing products to be converted into blood, bone and muscle. It overcomes, it is said, that great exciting cause of disease, weakness. It renders the body vigorous and elastic. It keeps the mind clear and energetic, and throws off the symptoms of nervousness and indigestion. It builds up the constitution run down by disease and mental and physical overwork, quickens convalescence and is an unfailing source of comfort to all sufferers from such trouble.

Tanlac is being specially introduced in Stanford at Penny's drug store.

Tanlac may be obtained at the following nearby cities: Moreland, Abraham Minks; Hustonville, Adams Bros.; McKinney, True & Co.; Ellisburg, Joseph McWilliams; Middleburg, W. C. Bryant; Crab Orchard, Lyne Bros.; Brodhead, John Robbins; Junction City, Reynolds & Evans; Lancaster, R. E. McRoberts; Bee Lick, J. Reynolds & Son.

V. A. Lear, of Lancaster, shipped about 2,000 lambs to the city markets, most of them going to Louisville, Cincinnati, and Jersey City. He paid the farmers an average price of 8 1-2 cents per pound.

V. A. Lear, of Lancaster, exported a car load of lambs to Cincinnati in the middle of the week, having bought the output of Ben King's flock, 168 head of young wool bearers, the lambs averaging 70 pounds, and costing him 10 1-2 cents per pound. Mr. Lear also shipped a car load of hogs to Hubbard, Haus and Ragsdale in Cincinnati last Tuesday, there being 100 head of swine in the lot, the animals tipping the beam at 200 pounds each. The following are some of his best deals for this export: From John Previtt 17 head of hogs, averaging 190 pounds at $8.30 per hundred; from Joe Hicks a dozen hogs tipping the scales at the high figures of 225 pounds and costing 8c per pound; from W. L. Jennings 30 hogs that showed an average of 180 pounds at $8 per hundred.

STANFORD TESTIMONY Home Proof, Here, There and Everywhere.

When you see Doan's Kidney Pills recommended in this paper you must always find the recommender a Stanford resident. It's the same everywhere—in 3,800 towns in the U. S. Forty thousand people publicly thank Doan's. What other kidney remedy can give this proof of merit, honesty and truth? Home testimony must be true or it could not be published here. Read this Stanford recommendation. Then insist on having Doan's. You will know what you are getting.

W. H. Mershon, Lancaster pike, Stanford, says: "I was troubled some time ago with an acute attack of kidney trouble. My back ached constantly and I had considerable pains through my loins. I felt languid at times and was easily tired. I took a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they fixed me up all right, the second box practically curing me of the trouble."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Mershon had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. 46-1

T. W. Jones, the local stock buyer bought up a big shipment of lambs and older sheep this week, as well as his usual supply of hogs. From W. L. McCarty he bought 110 ewes at $6.50 and 120 lambs at $9, both purchases being delivered this week. From J. M. Tarkington, west of the city, he bought 33 lambs, averaging 90 pounds at $8 and from Frank Martin, near Turnersville 30 fat ewes at $7; from J. H. Wright near Rowland, he purchased 17 lambs at $9; and from Tom Pence 15 lambs at $9.50. Among his purchases of porkers this week for shipment to Cincinnati were: from G. E. Lutes, of the McKinney section, 61 head which averaged 200 pounds at $8.40; from Jesse Martin, of Turnersville, 11 head which averaged 175 pounds at $8.25; from John Carter, of the

You Pay For One Every Year

Why not have one this year?

Weigh your saving in corn, your reduced need for hay, bran and other expensive fodder, the improved condition of your cattle from silage feeding, against the cost of a silo and there is only one way to figure it

You're Not Saving But Losing Money

by trying to do without a silo.

And every year you hesitate means a probably increased cost due to advancing costs of lumber, metals and labor. No better time than "right now", no better place than right here at home to get that silo you need.
